Local Fight Is On Livestock Killing Disease

Anthrax, the dreaded infectious disease dangerous to both humans and animals alike struck a local blow last week. This disease was known to have occurred in at least three places. One was the Wilbur Leavett farm between Canyon and Happy, another was the Whittenburg ranch near Stinnett and the other was the J. O. Parker place, also of Canyon.

Dr. J. L. Markham said that even though the disease was dangerous to public health, it was not highly contagious. The veterinarian said the disease was generally slow in spreading and that vaccination should not take place until it is definitely established that the place is anthrax contaminated. When vaccination is performed the place automatically becomes contaminated and caution is required in caring for the animals.

Markham said that once the symptoms of the disease show up, the animal usually dies within minutes. The symptoms, he said, usually appeared to be a weak, staggering condition of the animal. Sometimes the animal appears to have the colic, explained the veterinarian. He said that authorities believe that death is caused by asphixiation.

It seems that the disease throws so many germs into the system of the animal that it completely shuts off the oxygen supply.

Dr. Markham said the best symptom indicating anthrax was a sudden death of an animal and that a veterinarian should be called to dispose of that animal.

The disease has been held in check fairly well up to this point and a program is being planned to give the public a better understanding of the disease, and how to control it.

Future Water Supply Poses Town Problem

Mayor Andy Walsh and members of the City Commission are making every effort to get Canyon into the original pact of cities in promoting the Canadian River Dam. Such action would assure the town a sufficient supply of water until the year 2000 A. D.

Thursday, January 31, the mayor and a committee of men attended the water pact meeting in Amarillo upon the invitation of Mayor Whiteside of Lubbock, president of the water pact. Those who attended the pact meeting besides the mayor were Clark Jarnagin, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Cecil Massey, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and E. M. Myers, Chamber of Commerce treasurer.

During the past few years there has been an alarming drop in the water table here in Canyon. It was brought to light that the town now has two wells that will have to remain idle until the water level rises in them. The mayor also said the college is getting water from the city at the present time.

Walsh explained that sometime in the near future there is to be a special meeting to determine how the people feel toward getting into the original water pact. The Chamber of Commerce, the City Commission and the college will have representatives there. In addition to these, the mayor said he hoped all interested citizens would also be present.

Literature concerning all of the details of the Canadian River Project are in the hands of the mayor and the city commission. The information has been prepared by experts. There is detailed information on the development of the dam, the cost as well as a group of the most common questions and answers concerning the dam.

Getting into the original water pact and having this water available would be assurance of an abundant future supply of water for almost half-a-century.

Scouts To Enjoy A Barbecue Feed Thursday Night

Thursday night, February 7, is the date of the big feed for the Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and all others interested in this type of work. Stuart Condron, Scoutaster of the newly revived troop 66, said he especially wanted the parents of all the scouts and scout aged children to attend. Condron went on to say, "If I have not invited you personnally, please take this as a special invitation to attend."

The feed, which was described as barbecue plus all the trimmings, would take place at the First Christian Church at 7 o'clock in the evening. Stuart went on to explain that the feed was to be a sort of 'get acquainted affair.' He said that scouts would meet other boys of scout age, that parents could meet parents and that all would be able to meet the business men of the community.

During the program there will be an explanation of the progress made by troop 66 by Stuart Condron. He will explain what they are doing at the present time toward organization. In addition to this there will also be a talk by J. W. Hiett, District Scout Executive.

E. R. Cleavinger Appointed Lion Zone Chairman

Additional prestige was given the Canyon Lions Club last week when one of its members, E. R. (Dutch) Cleavinger, was appointed zone chairman. This vacancy occurred when Lion Cantrell of the Tulia Lions resigned the position and Boyd Meador, district governor of the Lions, had the task of appointing another person to fill out the remainder of the term as zone chairman.

Meador could not be on hand to make the official appointment. The official installation of Cleavinger was made by Lion deputy district governor Gunderson, after the Lions had observed their regular meeting last Wednesday.

Term of this office is one year and begins in the first part of July. Cleavinger will complete this term after which another chairman will be selected. The zone includes five clubs. Two Amarillo clubs are in the zone; the South Amarillo Lions and the Downtown Amarillo Lions. The other three clubs making up the zone are Tulia, Happy and Canyon.

Cub Scouts Visit The Globe-News Building Monday

Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock the Cub Scout Den number One journeyed up to Amarillo to go through the Globe-Times and Daily News building. Dudley Bayne explained that there were ten members of the Den, but only eight were able to make the trip.

The Cub Scout leader said the film was the informative type of comedy. They had been prepared for this type of audience by Walt Disney. The film was shown Monday night, Jan. 28.

Now that Scout Week is here the Cub Scouts will be pitching in to get the full meaning of the word. In a few years they will be full fledged scouts and by that time they will be fully prepared for their roles as scouts.

New 1952 Car Plates Are Now Ready for Buyers

The new 1952 car license plates are now on sale at the office of Bill Money in Canyon and the South Amarillo office of the Collector. New license plates may be installed on vehicles as soon as they are purchased.

According to a change in the Texas car license law, owners must take to the office of the collector two instruments: Title of ownership; and 1951 registration certificate. The collector is not allowed, by law, to look up the record and secure this information for the car owner.

Boy Scouts Are Guests of Rotary Club on Tuesday

Ten members of Troop 66 of the Boy Scouts were guests Tuesday of the Canyon Rotary Club.

Stuart Condron, scoutmaster, spoke briefly on the duties and obligations of his work as director of scouting work.

Jimmie Brown was called upon as representative of the tenderfoot group; Charles Joyner gave a demonstration on artificial respiration, with Frank Kimbrough as the "victim;" Billy Harrison told of health conditions in and around camps; while John Morris and Richard Dodson gave a demonstration of the care of snake bites. Morris advocated that every person carry a snake bite kit when out.

Scout leadership is a job; an obligation, and a privilege, stated Mr. Condron. He took his first work in Scouting in 1936 under Levi Cole and D. A. Nicholas.

Boys never change, and those who are directed in right lines are never in trouble, stated the speaker.

A barbecue for boy scouts and their parents will be given at the First Christian Church Thursday night of this week at 7 o'clock.

Visitors were N. E. Melburn and Ed Hendick of Hereford; Forrest Barnes, James Pierce, Carl Schell, E. Kancher, Dr. A. M. Meyer, Tom Gallaher, Jr., and Emil F. Myers.

Publicity To Be Given Area in 'The Circle Air'

"The Circle Air," a top ranking trade journal of the Western Auto Stores will have something in the next issue on Canyon. The material for the magazine was prepared by O. W. (Bud) Parker, owner of the local Western Auto Associate Store.

Because the Palo Duro Canyon is one of the major attractions of this area, Parker used the canyon in the article. He didn't stop with writing about the canyon. He contacted John McCarty, manager of the Palo Duro State Park, and arranged to send some pictures along with the article. He described the pictures as being somewhat recent ones which show the latest developments of the park.

Parker said that in the future there was a possibility that more and more material on this part of the country would appear in the magazine. The magazine goes to 37 states and is read by approximately 30,000 people.

It is edited and published in Kansas City, Mo., and is strictly a Western Auto Trade Journal. One of its primary interests is agriculture. For this reason the material from this part of the country would very easily lend itself to the publication.

Wakefield B. Walker of Salem, Oregon, has been visiting in the homes of Mrs. Jeanette Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brotherton and his father, George Walker, of Happy.

P. M. Wilson has been visiting in Dallas the past six weeks with his daughter, Mrs. Oma Ford, and other relatives. His sister, Mrs. Clara Phillips, returned home with him.

Mrs. P. M. Wilson has been visiting during the past two weeks in the Stinnett home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Groves.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bostick of Atwater, Calif., are visiting in the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. B. F. Machen.

Carl Eugene Hair will leave Saturday for two week's training at San Juan, Puerto Rico. He is in the Naval Reserve at Amarillo.

Poll Tax Payments at Record of 6,291

Randall county will have more than 6,300 votes in the 1952 elections if all of the qualified voters take the time to go to the polls.

According to the results of the poll tax drive, Precinct No. 9, comprised largely of South Amarillo, leads Randall county, with a total payment of 3,569, or 1,345 more poll taxes than all other precincts of Randall county combined. The heavy payments of South Amarillo is largely due to the drive which was put on all over Amarillo by various organizations.

In Canyon the poll tax payments numbered only a few more in 1952 than in 1950. It is believed that scores of qualified voters did not pay their poll tax this year, which would have been the case with a sufficient drive being made for their payments.

The following was the poll tax payments and exemptions by precincts:

	Poll Tax	Exemptions
Precinct 1	1629	110
Precinct 2	56	6
Precinct 3	32	6
Precinct 4	45	2
Precinct 5	74	3
Precinct 6	111	5
Precinct 7	31	1
Precinct 8	143	4
Precinct 9	3,569	364
Totals	5,790	501

Total for poll taxes and exemptions of 6,291 does not include at least 200 overs in territory outside of Precinct 9 where they were not required to hold exemptions.

Candidates for public office will be studying the poll tax payments with the view of reaching as many of the voters as possible before election time.

Lion Morris Is Officially Made Club Candidate

Milton (Buff) Morris received the official nomination for District Lion Governor last Wednesday at the Lions regular luncheon. The official nomination was made by Lion Wendell Cain.

Morris, who is a Perryton boy, is an ex-student of WTSC. He played basketball under the late Coach S. D. Burton. While in college Morris had a double major, they were school administration and agriculture. He completed his college in 1934. During the last year in college he coached sports in the college high school.

Leaving West Texas State, the candidate for district governor of the Lions, went over to Friona to coach basketball. For two consecutive years he had the team that won the district championship.

After receiving his B. A. degree from Texas A. & I. at Kingsville, Morris returned to Canyon High School to teach vocational agriculture. He also coached basketball and once more for two consecutive years copped the district championship.

He established the first and present FFA chapter here. He was also instrumental in starting the Junior Livestock Association and the Co-op Broiler Project. In 1938 he was made principal of Canyon High School. He continued to teach agriculture and at the same time add other duties to his activities.

During the past he has worked with Boy Scouts, directed dairy shows, been in charge of FFA booths at the Tri-State Fair, and at present he is devoting much of his time to ex-student activities of West Texas State.

One of the charter members of the Lions Club, Morris has been the president of that organization three times. He is also a Steward of the Methodist church, and has served in almost every capacity possible to give the community additional progress.

Building Permits Show Slow Start

Building permits for the year of 1952 started out at a snail's pace with less than half-a-dozen being issued. Records at the City Hall show that a garage, greenhouse, storage shed, an addition to a home and one service station were each issued a permit. The total amount of the five permits amounted to $10,100.00.

This figure is less than one-third of the building permits issued during the month of December, 1951. During the final month of last year building permits climbed to $37,400.00. Local construction work is greatly affected by the weather. City Hall records show that during bad weather in the first part of the year only one building permit was issued.

No building permits were issued in the month of January between the 3rd and the 17th. The first permit was issued for a garage on January 2. The next permit came on the 18 with the 23, 28, and 29 rounding out the five total for the entire month.

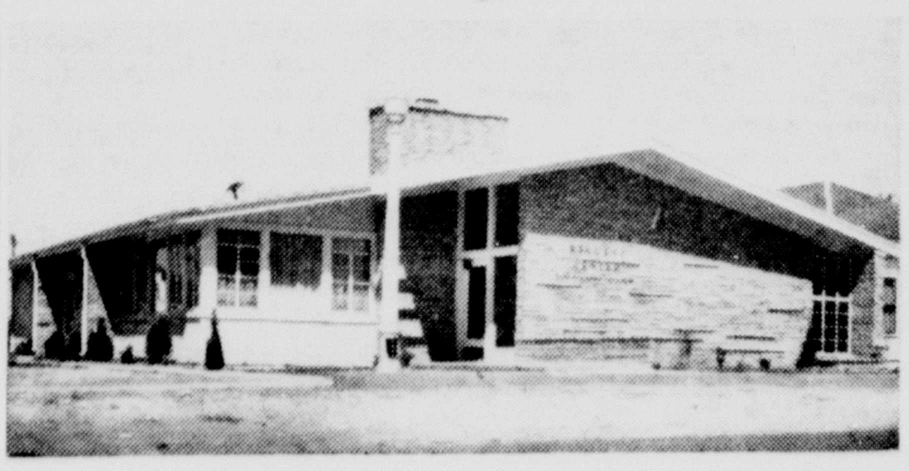
Former Resident Helps Hospital in Greely, Colorado

A former Canyon resident and a WTSC ex-student, was recently in the news at Greely, Colorado. She is Mrs. Dean Hinds, the former Raynelle Rigsby. She and her husband, Dean Hinds, are both ex-students of West Texas State.

Mrs. Hinds, who is president of the Jaycee-Ettes in Greely, Colo., recently had the honor of presenting a $150.00 check to a public hospital official to pay for an infant incubator.

The money was raised through various projects both by the Jaycee-Ettes and the Jaycees of Greely.

Bishop Martin To Dedicate Methodist Center and Parsonage Here on Sunday



Dedication ceremonies for the West Texas State College Methodist Student Center are to be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Delivering the dedicatory speech in the center chapel will be William C. Martin, Methodist bishop for the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Over 400 Methodist clergy and laymen are expected to attend the ceremonies.

The $43,000 structure, built of Arkansas Harmony Ledge Stone, was officially opened September 18, 1949. Since that time, it has served as the center of Methodist student activities on the college campus.

Designed by John L. Hannon, Amarillo architect, and built by M. S. Downing, contractor of Canyon, the building is comprised of nine rooms including a prayer chapel, built and furnished by the Polk Street Methodist Church of Amarillo; a lounge, furnished by Dr. and Mrs. O. H. Loyd of Vega; and a game room furnished by the Hooten-Dean Bible Class of the First Methodist Church of Plainview.

Also included is a class room furnished by the Murray Bible Class of the First Methodist Church of Canyon; a student work room furnished by the First Methodist Church at Clarendon and the director's office, furnished by the First Methodist Church of Pampa.

The building also houses a three room apartment for the director and his family. It was partly furnished by the Men's Bible Class of Canyon and Wesley Foundation at the college. Landscaping was donated by Mrs. J. F. Ward of Hereford.

Providing music for the dedication ceremonies will be the West Texas State College A Cappella Choir under the direction of Houston Bright.

They will sing "God is With Us," featuring Peggy Williams, Plainview freshman, as soloist, and "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," with Joe Coleman, Fort Worth senior, singing the solo part.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

A Few Observations As The Days Roll By . . . . .

The most distressing news out of Washington, D. C., came with the branding of political convention as mere "eyewash" by President Truman.

Wonder how the vast number of patriotic citizens feel who worked day and night trying to induce people to pay their poll tax before closing time?

Is their work just for naught? A batch of flimsy eyewash which will be thrown out of the window by the professional politicians, with whom the President has so long been connected?

Truman let it be known that he does not intend seeking a place on any of the Democratic tickets in any state in the union, but if he wishes the nomination, all he will do is send word to the National Convention that he is ready to serve, and the nomination will be handed him on a silver platter!

Since Truman grew up in Kansas City under the Pendergast domination, this seems the logical way for him to get the nomination. This was the way conventions were operated in the past. Maybe they are still operated that way. We shall see!

The statement of Truman is a clear slap at the Democratic manner of nominating the President and Vice President for the Democratic Party. It simply goes to show the intolerance of Truman for the majority when he feels sure that the minority boss will override the masses of the party.

Perhaps Truman will get his lesson, the hard way, in the primaries this year, and later in the election of this fall.

We have never had much sympathy for Senator Joe McCarthy. He has popped off too much.

Yet, he has been right more often than he has been wrong. If you do not believe this, just check the record.

McCarthy is not in accord with President Truman. The President has been after the Wisconsin Senator for a long while, largely because McCarthy is a reformer, and no one is particularly fond of reformers as a class.

The President has had harsh things to say about McCarthy. Probably many of his statements are correct. No one knows for sure just what value to place upon the Republican Senator. The Senator likes to needle the President, as he feels sure that Truman will have a snappy retort, and many of these off-the-cuff retorts have been far from the truth.

One thing seems sure and certain, if Truman continues defending the grafters of his official family as he has in the past, the voters will have a clear-cut preference when they go to the polls in November. This preference will be between Truman, the machine politician, and either Eisenhower or Taft, both of whom are well known as pure in their political beliefs.

Can corruption win? We prefer to believe that an honest and honorable man will win.

How the White House has grown!

Under Harding the White House cost the American people $330,000. It cost the taxpayers $332,000 under Coolidge; $336,000 under Hoover; $528,000 under Roosevelt; what about Truman, you say! Well hold your hats and read—just $2,514,000 was spent for the White House under Truman.

President Harding employed 31 persons to operate the White House.

Again hold your hats—under Truman the number has increased to 293.

The cost of government today is eight times that of the Harding administration, when we had Tea Pot Dome. Even the corruption of 1952 has increased with the passing of a few short years.

In 144 years the first 28 Presidents spent $113 billion dollars; the New Deal, with World War II, spent $376 billion in 12 years; while the so-called Fair Deal has spent $327 billion in 7 years, with "police action" in Korea. By the end of the 8th year of the Fair Deal the cost to the taxpayers will have mounted to $400 billion dollars.

No wonder your income taxes have hit the ceiling this year. And they will continue to increase just so long as the free spenders remain in control in Washington.

"What are you going to say about Price Daniel and Tom Connally," asked an interested reader the other day.

Simply this: We are waiting to see the developments of this campaign.

We have always thought a lot of Senator Connally. We supported him when he made his first race for the Senate, and may support him again, depending upon a lot of factors.

We admire Price Daniel, and have listened with a great deal of interest to his first two broadcasts. He is an energetic, fearless fighter, and no doubt would make a good Senator if elected.

Senator Connally is not going to take defeat sitting down. He is an aggressive campaigner, and may develop into a tough adversary for the youthful attorney general to handle.

Now that you have your poll tax receipt, you can vote in the July primary without fear of being counted out by the White House! The primary in Texas is the last word.

We wish that we could observe all of the 525 special weeks which have been set aside in the United States. Many of them are not observed in Texas! Of all things! Consider the fact that there is a special week which is entirely missing to the people of this good state.

We shall just have to break down and cry about our misfortune!

Doggone it, and gee whiz!

Here we have been driving our old 1947 car, but here comes all of the new, shiny models, which make our old vehicle look so antiquated.

We believe that the car manufacturers have gone and done it again—just for the purpose of making us feel badly.

Maybe one of these days we shall break down and buy a new car, if someone will loan us the money!

Senator Taft proposed in 1942 that ex-presidents be given life-time jobs in the U. S. Senate at $25,000 per year. The ex-president would represent no state and would have no vote. Perhaps Taft foresaw that which is in the making for 1952, and would like to see HST retired for life.

In the senate he could do no harm to the country.

We expect that our old car will pass the inspection, and if it will not pass, we intend repairing it to make it pass.

Along comes the state and reduces the requirements for state inspection.

While we have no quarrel with state officials, we are just wondering: If one group of state officials can change the law, without legislative consent, why cannot all state agencies write their own laws?

Of course the courts are continually writing law through legal opinions, but the courts are the only group which has had such powers in the past. If someone should go to the trouble to challenge the authority of the state to relinquish inspection rules, wonder what the courts would do?

Seeing all of these strikes, reminds the Newsman of his youthful days.

The union in Iowa City, Iowa, called a strike against the two daily newspapers. We were called upon to go in as a strike breaker, and heeded the call. After the union was whipped, all of the strike breakers joined the union. We still hold the "honorable discharge" from the Typographical Union, received after we worked for three years as a union printer and came to Canyon.

Frankly, if we were going into a union town, we would join the union. However, let it be remembered that we are thankful—sincerely thankful—that no union exists in Canyon. There are advantages and distinct disadvantages to organized labor.

Strikes are a sore spot with all honest laboring men, called usually for the purpose of protecting some inefficient member who is fired.

The English are realistic people. They followed the Labor government down to bankruptcy, and then turned thumbs down on this bunch. Churchill won in spite of the drab promises for the future.

The Laborites thought that this week was the ripe time to oust Churchill, but the people who elected him are still his friend. He has just returned from America, not entirely emptyhanded. Churchill has a way with Americans, that is, he knows how to get into our pockets with the spending money. The English knew good and well that the Laborites were through, all washed up. They may not appreciate having Churchill tell them what they will have to do, but after all a dollar is a dollar, and British dollars are getting very, very scarce.

While most of us are opposed to wasting more money abroad, we certainly realize that England must be saved, even at a tragic price, from the results of her own follies.

Those who spend most of their time talking about other people don't have enough variety in life. One of the missing elements usually being work.

If all the advice printed in newspapers and magazines and heard over the radio were collected into one volume, nobody would read it.

The customs of youth and old people change with the passing years, but it is very difficult for some older people to get the idea.

Organizations exist very largely for the benefit of the organizer. The suckers get the enthusiasm and the leaders get the cash.

A sense of humor, and the habit of laughing at yourself when nobody is looking, makes for a well-seasoned individual.

The trouble with most community and civic campaigns is that the preliminary arrangements wear out the workers.

If you know what a man does, you do not need to know what he says, to judge whether or not he practices his religion.

There is no way for a young person to attain years of experience, but by careful study he can learn from other people's experiences.

Those who claim to be leading the fight against Communism should not support authoritation groups, movements or governments.

Has any insurance company yet offered a policy covering the collision of worlds? If not it is something to think about.

The test of character comes when one person holds a preponderance of advantages over others — in the way he treats them.

Correct this sentence: "I've been meaning to answer your letter for several months but I haven't had one minute."

Advertising is not bragging. It is merely a device to show buyers where they can get more for their money.

It is usually hard to buck the majority, but it often pays in the long run, especially when the majority is wrong.

If you never learn to stop kicking yourself in the pants for your daily mistakes life will come harder and harder.

To hear some people tell it, all the world's problems fade into nothing when matched with their brains.

Successful democracy depends upon the collectively-expressed judgment of free-thinking individuals.

The average college student today has had little opportunity to learn what a dollar is worth.

WT Students Hear Musical Program

West Texas State College students made their first assembly of the spring semester Thursday morning. Dr. James P. Cornette explained the status of the military men on the campus and went on to say that the present contract for training additional military men had not been renewed. The college president also reminded the students that the basketball team would need all of the support the students could give during the remaining games.

The pep leaders took the stage and led the students through a couple of yells. Perhaps it was the lack of pre-game atmosphere, but the students couldn't seem to get into the spirit of the yells. It is possible that the excellent spirit of the pep leaders and the thrill of the pre-game setting will bolster the students the next time the Buffaloes play.

A principal part of the program during assembly was supplied by the music department of Amarillo College. Howard Dill, professor of music at Amarillo College, sang three selections. His wife played the piano accompaniment for his vocal renditions.

After Mr. Dill left the stage, one of the talented students of Amarillo College brought her cello out. She was Miss Shirley Foster, a young student, who contributed three fine selections to the program enjoyed by the West Texas State students.

Dr. Cornette remarked that the program was short but made up in quality that which it lacked in quantity.

Enrollment 1475; 866 On Campus

Enrollment figures for the 1952 Spring Semester have been released by Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State. Although Dr. Cornette pointed out that at the present time the statistics are not complete, they already exceed the 1951 Spring Semester figures by 100 students.

At the time these figures were released there were 866 full time civilian students on the campus. At Amarillo Center the enrollment total was 609. This brings the total enrollment in both places to 1,475 full time civilian students.

Last spring there were approximately 970 students enrolled on campus, which exceeds the present number by almost 100. Amarillo Center had 472 students to bring last year's total to 1,302.

These figures do not include the military personnel who are taking clerical-typist work at the college. There are approximately 300 of these students attending classes on the campus.

Registration officially ended yesterday.

PHSPA Chiefs Meet Saturday

Executive Committee of the Panhandle High School Press Association met on the West Texas State campus Saturday afternoon, January 27, with T. C. Brown and V. A. Vandergriff.

Officers present were President, Wanda Norman of Tahoka, Secretary, Eddie Riley of Childress and Kenneth Gould, Sponsor, Tahoka.

Arrangements were made for the annual PHSPA convention which is to be held here at West Texas Saturday, March 22, and a full program has been planned. According to Vandergriff, the conference proceedings for the most part will be in the hands of the high school students themselves.

Twenty-one schools are represented in the Association and a substantial increase over last year's attendance of 250 students is expected for this year's meeting.

Aggies Jackets Show Blue, Gold

New jackets are now being worn by 22 members of the West Texas Aggie Club. At a meeting late last fall, members of the club decided that it would be to the advantage of the club to set permanent club colors and to follow the practice of most campus organizations by wearing jackets.

The blue and gold jackets are of the reversible type lined with maroon and white, and are adorned with the T-Anchor brand flanked by the letters W and T over the word Aggies. To be eligible for a jacket the student must be a member of the Aggie Club and be an agriculture major.

Those receiving jackets in the first order include: James Bible, Boyd Vaughn, Jim Trentfield, Travis Jones, Bobby Scott, J. W. Owens, Carl Jennings, Edward Rohrberly, James Frost, Max Downing, J. E. Owens, Marvin Cornette, Bill Piehl, Jerry Montgomery, R. W. Bergeren, W. F. Mullican, Max Carver, Jack McGhee, and David Woods.

Back in 1938, it was my good fortune to visit Langtry and to talk to Postmaster Dodd, whose father was Judge Roy Bean's adviser and closest friend. Postmaster Dodd said the stories about Bean ever having hanged anybody were untrue. "There was not a tree around here big enough to support a man's body," he said, with a chuckle.

Did you ever hear of the town of Ben Ficklin? It was the county seat of Tom Green County until in 1882, it was swept away by a flood that claimed about 65 lives. Some years back, the San Angelo Standard-Times published an interview with Mrs. Felix Probandt, who was 14 when the flood occurred. She recalled vividly the disaster, which claimed the lives of her father, an aunt and a cousin.

There had been three weeks of heavy rains and then it let up for a day to such an extent that prospective landbuyers went out to inspect property. But the next morning the angry waters of the Middle Concho River came rolling down on the little town.

The county surveyor went into the courthouse to save some papers and was marooned there. Mrs. Probandt related, "We could hear the shots of his pistol mingling with the cries of animals and fowls going down the river."

Survivors standing on a hill above the town saw building after building swept down the Middle Concho. One of the most harrowing experiences was that of Sterling S. Roberson, a merchant. To escape the waters, he was forced to spend the night in a tree, with a snake coiled around his foot!

Afterward, the county seat was changed to its present location, San Angelo, and the name of Ben Ficklin now lives only as a "ghost town."

A soldier wounded in World War II by a shell fragment in the throat, wrote "Will I live?" The doctor said, "Yes." Then the wounded man wrote, "Will I be able to talk?" Again the doctor's reply was "Yes." The soldier wrote, "Then what in the h...... am I worrying about?"

The Interstate Commerce Commission has refused to consider any further increase in Railway Express rates at this time. The rates have been increased several times since the end of World War II, the latest such rise was granted last October when it authorized a new 11 per cent advance.

CAMPS FOR SUBVERSIVES

BIRDS GET $10,000

Delaware, O. — William H. Ziessler, a druggist-bachelor, with no close relatives, left most of his $10,000 estate to four Australian cockatoos — then donated his birds "to the children of Central Ohio." The birds are about 30 years old now and may live another 35 years. The $10,000 was to "provide a permanent home" for them.

WHAT LIGHT?

Fond du Lac, Wis. — Explaining a collision, Harry L. Sitloff told officers, "I had the green light while the other driver went through the red light." Sitloff was fined $50 anyway, for drunken driving — because there are no traffic lights at the intersection.

Lions Entertained By Tulia Talent

Tulia furnished the talent for the Lions Club program Wednesday. Five lovely young girls blended their voices to sing four musical selections for the enjoyment of the group. They were: Pat Arnold, Marilyn Boydstun, Jimmie Tomlinson, Dot Briggs and Jealetta Elliott. Their director and pianist was Thelma McMinn.

The girls sang "Kentucky Babe," "Memory Lane," and "Winter Wonderland." When the enthusiastic applause brought them back for another number they chose to sing without the piano accompaniment. With a dash of hill-billy flavor they launched the song, "In An Old Fashioned Garden," and continued with that zestful tang all the way through.

All five clubs of this zone were represented at the meeting. The Lions Club at Happy had one representative present; Tulia had six representatives; South Amarillo Lions Club had two members, and two delegates were present from the Downtown Amarillo Lions Club. Members of the Canyon Lions made up the fifth club of the zone. The representatives of the other clubs in the zone were present for the purpose of making "Dutch" Cleavinger the zone chairman, and a regular zone meeting.

Two new members were initiated into the club. They were Father J. Arnold Carlson and Dr. Melvin Callihan.

Lion Wendell Cain took advantage of the meeting by formerly announcing the candidacy of a local member, Milton (Buff) Morris, for District Lions Governor for 1953.

Harrell-McGlasson Vows Solemnized In Impressive Service Friday Evening

The First Baptist Church of Amarillo was the scene of the marriage of Miss Christine Harrell and Daniel Eugene McGlasson, Jr. on Friday evening with the Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Canyon, performing the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene F. Harrell of Harlingen and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. E. McGlasson of Amarillo.

As an organ prelude, Gay Axman played "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" by Saint-Saens, "Barcarolle" from Tales from Hoffman by Offenbach and "Melody in F" by Rubenstein. Mrs. J. Gus Henderson, accompanied by Mr. Avman, sang "Because" by D'Hardelot, and "Through the Years" by Youmans. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The altar was backed by arches of woodwardia fern outlined in candles. Marking the aisles were candles and gladioli tied with white satin ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. William E. Hailey of Waco, Mrs. Robert B. Burnett, Mrs. Bert Matthews and Miss Melbaree Lands. They were attired in gowns of violet satin, designed with fitted bodices, rounded necklines with lace collars and bouffant skirts. They wore lace mitts and hats and carried bouquets of white carnations tied with gold ribbon and maline.

Mrs. Edward S. Morris, sister of the bridegroom, was matron-of-honor. She wore a gown identical to those worn by the bridesmaids in gold satin and carried a bouquet of white carnations tied with violet ribbon and maline.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white bridal satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, long tapering sleeves, a drop shoulder yoke and a round neckline featuring a Peter Pan collar. The full skirt extended into a cathedral train. Her full-length veil of illusion was bordered and inset with Belgium lace and secured by a satin half-hat. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Edward S. Morris was best man. Groomsmen and ushers were William E. Hailey, Graddy Tunnell of Plainview, Charles Waters of Lubbock, and Morris Cobb.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Harrell chose a frock of aqua chiffon and a yellow rose corsage. The bridegroom's mother selected a dress of royal blue lace over taffeta. Her corsage was of pink camellias.

A reception was held in the church parlor immediately following the ceremony.

For the wedding trip to New Mexico and Colorado, Mrs. McGlasson wore a navy silk shantung suit. Completing her ensemble were navy and white accessories and a yellow rose corsage.

The couple will make their home in Canyon after February 10.

Mrs. McGlasson was graduated from Baylor University and until recently worked for Sanders, Scott, Saunders, and Smith.

The bridegroom attended West Texas State College and received his law degree from Baylor University. He is now serving as County Attorney in Canyon.

Local Boy Is Milking Way Through Tech

James Rigsby, a former resident of Canyon and a graduate of Canyon High School, is helping defray his expenses at Texas Technological College by living in a barn and milking cows. The local student and others who live in the barn call it the "Jersey Dormitory," and say that it's more fun than task. The boys describe their lot as living in a barn and working their way through school by the gallon.

Some of the boys in the "Jersey Dormitory" have never lived anywhere else since arriving in Lubbock. The money they earn milking and caring for the dairy herd covers all their expenses while at Tech. Some of the boys admitted that if it were not for such a program they would be unable to attend college.

The boys do their own cooking and have two lockers in which to store beef. They recently got enough money together to make a down payment on a pickup truck. They are described as having lots of fun with their work. Rigsby ventured, "I imagine we have more fun than anyone else on the campus."

SERMON OVER

It was the first time in church for the three year old. He was surprisingly patient through the sermon. He toyed with a hymn book, looked around the church with interest, but made no trouble.

Then the minister gave the benediction. The congregation bowed its head. The child looked at his mother in prayer — head down, eyes closed — and ordered in a clarion voice that only one of his age can muster: "Mommy — wake up!"

GOOD REPLY

Bounderby: "Look at me, I am a self-made man!"

Gradgrind: "That is the trouble with this cheap labor."

THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS REVIVAL IS PROGRESSING

"The revival is still in progress at The Pentecostal Holiness Church one block west of the courthouse on 5th Avenue.

Interest is increasing with Rev. Carrol Vowell doing some soul inspiring preaching. If you come once, you will want to come back and hear this young man who was called to preach when he was only 14 years old.

Rev. Vowell, being afflicted with rheumatic fever, was told by the doctors that he would never be able to live a normal life. When God called him to preach he said, "Lord, I can't preach," but God kept dealing until one night he said, "Lord, if you will heal me of this rheumatic fever, I will preach your gospel." God took him at his word and healed him.

Come one and all and enjoy the blessings of the Lord with us."

Mrs. C. W. Haddock, pastor

A KINDRED SPIRIT

The sad, quiet, big-eyed little lady sat in the psychiatrist's office. The good doctor questioned her gently as to why her family wanted her locked up.

"Now tell me," he said, "just what is your trouble?"

"It's just that . . . just that I'm so fond of pancakes, doctor."

"Is that all? Why, I'm very fond of pancakes myself."

"Oh, doctor, really? she thrilled, clasping her hands together with joy. You must come over to our house . . . I've got trunks and trunks full of them."

GOOD SHOT

Pocatello, Idaho. — Spotting a deer, LaVerl Johnson dismounted from his horse, sighted with one hand and dropped the deer with a shot through the head although the animal was a running target, 75 feet away. Unusual — not so very — except for the fact that Johnson is a triple amputee who gets around mostly by wheel chair.

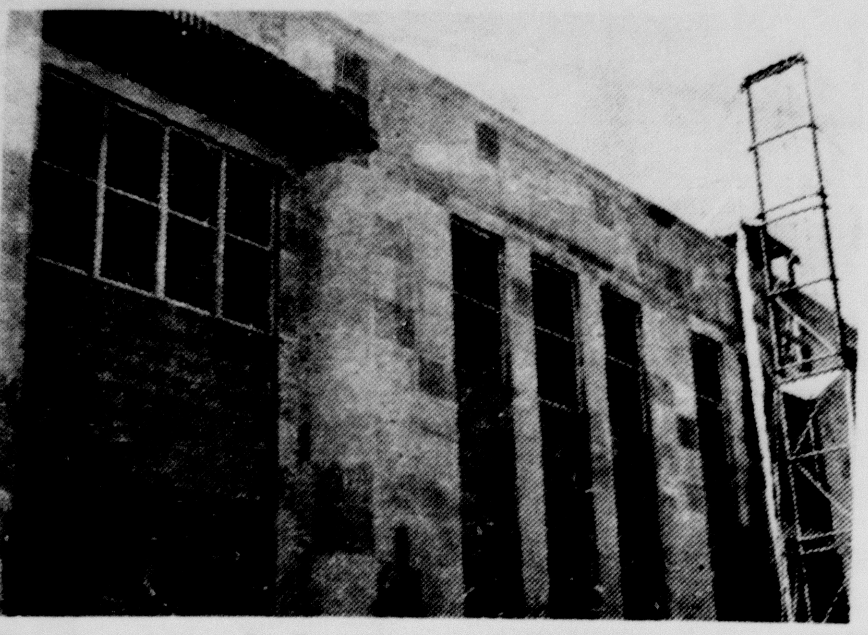
Up and Up She Goes



President James P. Cornette announced Wednesday that the new library building should be ready for occupation by September.

* * * * * * * * * *

Library May Be Finished by September Shortages Delay Construction Work

By the time the next fall semester begins at West Texas State, students may be using the new library building. This news was released by Dr. James P. Cornette last Wednesday in a statement concerning the present building progress.

One of the reasons why the construction job lagged so far behind schedule was the fact that it was forced to break two bottlenecks. The first one was that of steel. During the first stages of the building it was all but impossible to get steel for construction work. It was all going for national defense. After the steel shortage was overcome and the necessary materials were obtained, a shortage of construction workers confronted the builders.

"During the recent past the labor problem has been solved and the construction work is meeting its building schedule", said Dr. Cornette. In fact, it is the present progress of the building that may enable the college to use it by next September. If the workmen are able to continue building at the present rate, the building will be ready for occupancy come September.

PARTY INCOME

Contributions to the Democratic National Committee in 1951 totaled $1,318,574, with expenditures at $1,311,652. Miscellaneous receipts for the Democrats approximated $25,000 and total disbursement, $1,311,652. The Republican National Committee reported $679,157 in receipts and $584,473, in expenditures during 1951, leaving a net gain of $94,084 for the year.

DRAFT QUOTAS

The Army and the Marines are calling 52,500 draftees in February and 28,600 in March — which is a cut of 2,500 for February and a below-average figure for March. The March call, bringing the total of draftees since September, 1950, to 875,430, including 20,000 for the Army and 8,600 for the Marines.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Self-employed business men have been cautioned against including their own names on the quarterly social-security tax return which they must file on their employes during January. The new law says that self-employed men should report their own net earnings only once a year, on a form which will be included with regular income tax forms. Though these employers will not report their income until early 1952, they will receive social security credit for their 1951 earnings, just as do employes whose wages are reported quarterly.

TV SETS

Latest estimates are that 33 per cent of all United States families have television receivers. Of the approximately 14,558,000 sets in the country, three cities have more than a million: New York, 2,630,000; Los Angeles, 1,045,000, and Chicago, 1,020,000.

PERSONAL INCOME

Personal income increased from $225,000,000,000 in 1950 to $251,000,000,000 in 1951, with disposable income — what's left after taxes — increasing nine per cent. Consumer buying was slightly "off" in 1951, while savings zoomed to $19,000,000,000.

BE CAREFUL, YOUNG MAN

Stouish middle-aged women, a motor expert has discovered, are the safest drivers, but, my boy, you'd better be pretty darned careful whom you compliment on that score.

NEITHER DO WE

In the stomach of a seal, deceased in Oregon, was found $2.56 in coins, presumably savings, although we don't know why a rainy day should be of any concern to a seal.

RESERVES

The Army has announced its decision to train all its 25 Reserve Corps divisions as infantry because of a lack of training facilities and equipment for airborne and armored troops.

NOTHING FINER

Because his wife put the dog in the dishpan, a Columbus (Ind.) man asks a divorce. And yet there is nothing finer than a wirehair for scouring aluminum.

TWO OCCASIONS

There are two occasions when a man isn't hesitant in telling about his dependents—while filling out a draft questionaire and reporting his income tax.

College Bus Run Stops Saturday

Virgil Henson, Business Manager for the college, announced this week that the regularly scheduled college bus run to and from Amarillo will be discontinued this Saturday. According to Henson, the bus has been running at a deficit all fall and the college cannot afford to keep it operating at its present rate of loss.

On the average, only six passengers occupied the bus every trip and unless more people apply immediately for regular passage, the bus will make its last trip tomorrow. The driver of the bus is taking the list of those prospective passengers.

In the event that the bus is discontinued, The Prairie will act as clearing house for those stranded passengers. If anyone is regularly driving back and forth from Amarillo and would accept an expense-sharing passenger, please contact The Prairie office. Likewise, those passengers looking for a regular ride should leave their names with someone in the Publications offices.

Estes Kefauver, U. S. Senator from Tennessee: "No single nation in the modern world can maintain peace by force of arms without going bankrupt in the process."

Willem Drees, Premier of the Netherlands: "Korea has confronted the Western world with the necessity of being strong."

IT IS!

In many cases, the chip on a person's shoulder is just bark.

GOOD QUESTION

Little Sue was all eyes at the fashionable church wedding.

"Did the lady change her mind?" she whispered to her mother.

"No, dear. What makes you think so?"

"Cause she went up the aisle with one man and came back with another."

HE FOUND OUT

Our portly neighbor who hasn't gone shopping with his wife for 10 years, demanded to know where all the grocery money was going to.

She told him to stand sideways in front of the mirror.

PINCH HIT

As the tightly-packed elevator descended, graying Mrs. Morton became increasingly furious with her husband standing beside her. His face was flushed and aglow with delight — and because the blonde girl was crowded against him.

As the elevator stopped on the main floor, the blonde suddenly whirled, slapped Mr. Morton, and said: "I'll teach you to pinch."

Bewildered, and no longer aglow, Mr. Morton was half way to the parking lot with his wife, when he choked: "I-I didn't pinch that blonde girl."

"Of course, you didn't," said wife consolingly. "I did."

FORTUNATE

"Most people can't stand prosperity," asserts a socialogist. Most people don't have to.

NOT SO BAD

Most men wouldn't mind their wives having the last word if they wouldn't keep repeating it.

Sports, Center, Band, Songstress Featured On West Texas Radio

Eight college sponsored radio programs are now being aired or are to be scheduled over Amarillo stations in the near future. Four of the programs have been going for some time and plans are progressing rapidly for the remaining few.

Now being aired each Monday night is Blackie Nichol's Sportscast over radio station KAMQ. The program is scheduled weekly at 10:15 and covers sporting events of West Texas State College as well as throwing in a few plugs about other area sports.

On Tuesday nights you can hear "Amarillo Center of West Texas State College" at 6:15 over KAMQ. This is a program of interviews carried on with people attending Amarillo Center. They are asked questions such as, "How did you come to know about Amarillo Center?" "Is this your first class at the Amarillo Center?" "Who is your instructor here at AC?" Varying personalities come before the microphone and many interesting reasons for going to school are given by the passing parade of pupils.

The Buffalo Band can be heard at 5:45 each Saturday on station KFDA. At this time recordings, made on the campus by the Buffalo Band during week-day rehearsals, are played. The repertoire varies from fevered marches to slow Andantes by renowned composers in the classical field.

Making her debut tomorrow, Juanna Jo Broadaway will be heard at 11:00 on Saturdays. The remarkable soprano, already well known throughout the Panhandle for her vocal talents, will sing both popular and semi-classical music.

Among the remaining programs to be scheduled, there is an educational forum to begin in February, in which Dean Walter Juniper will act as moderator.

WT's A Cappella Choir program is soon to be scheduled, furnishing both small ensemble music and booming choral arrangements.

The Holmes Ambrose - Matilda Gaume show is on tap for sometime this spring, as is a series of religious programs, all to originate from the campus of West Texas State College.

VET TAX REFUNDS

Defense Department officials are reminding Korean war veterans that they may be eligible for income tax refunds for time spent in hospitals. The new exemption applies to men hospitalized for wounds, illness or injury suffered in Korea, and is retroactive to June 24, 1950. Many men are not taking advantage of this, it is said.

The demand for baby chicks is continuing at near record levels, according to the Agriculture Department. This brought total production for 1951 to 1,765,092,000, or 15 per cent more than in 1950 and 9 per cent more than the previous record production in 1945.

New York. — Last October a new employee of a Bronx trucking firm disappeared with a tractor—trailer-truck belonging to the firm. A friend of one of the firm's partners spotted the tractor recently on a chance visit to Indian River City, Florida. The trailer was returned to the owners by the men who said they had leased it and police are seeking the real culprit.

INFLATION

Only a "moderate" rise of inflationary pressures are forecast for 1952 by the President's Council of Economic Advisers, provided Government controls remain intact. The consumer himself is the question mark, however. He has saved instead of spent for nine months and if he should suddenly invade the market with his record earnings and unprecedented savings, the council fears "another inflationary upsurge."

TOO FAST FOR HER

Bedford, Ind. — A Bedford woman had scarcely replaced the receiver on the hook, after calling a cab, when a cab driver knocked on her door. Amazed, the woman refused to "ride with anyone who drives as fast as you must have to get here so quickly." All explanations failed to convince her and another cab had to be sent to her house before she would leave.

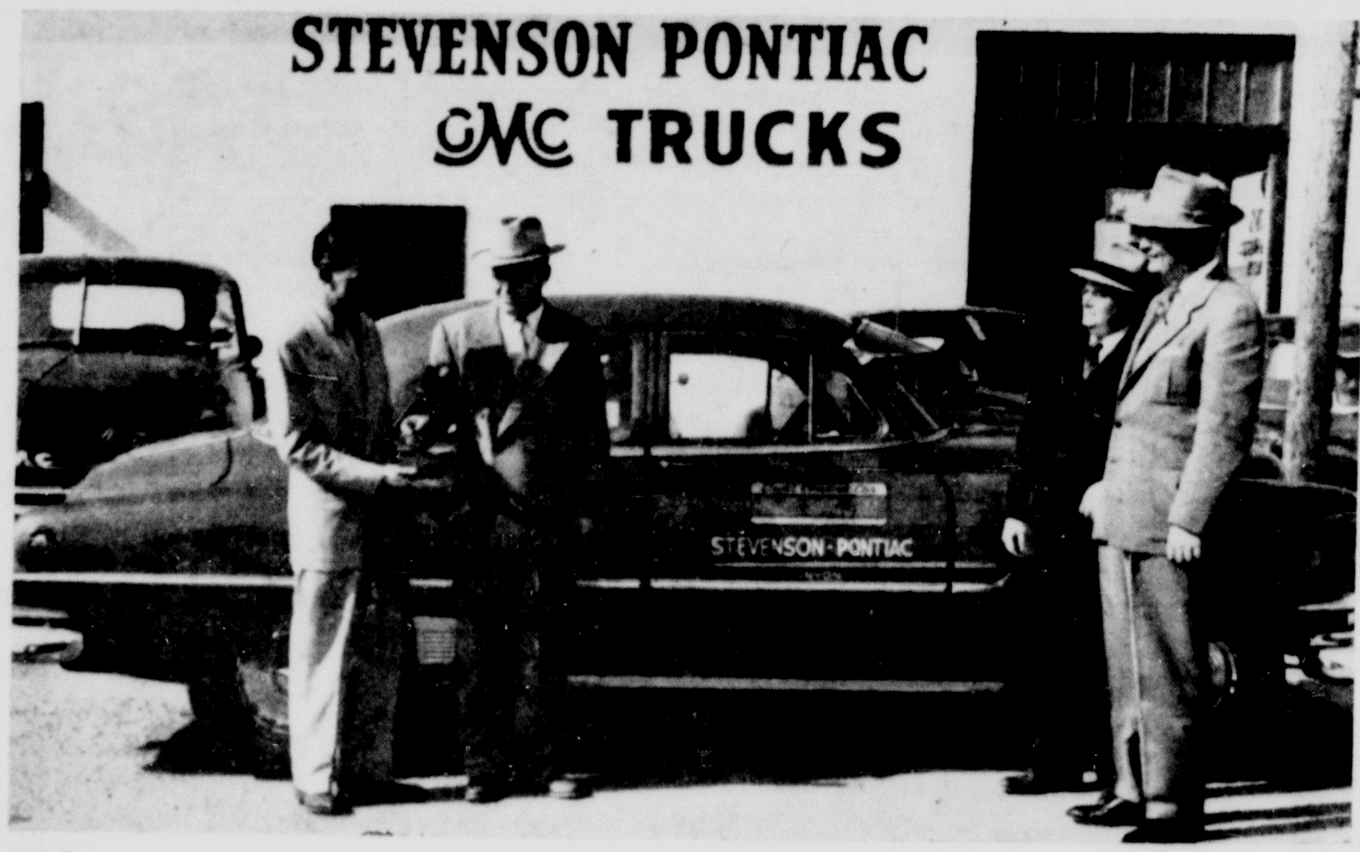
Canyon High School Gets 1952 Model Pontiac



E. A. Wooten, superintendent of Canyon Public Schools receives the keys to a brand new 1952 model Pontiac from T. S. Stevenson Jr., of the Stevenson Pontiac Company. The other two men, from left to right are F. M. Straughn, Pontiac District Manager and G. W. Weatherbee from the Pontiac Business Management office out of Oklahoma City. Behind them is the Pontiac which is being loaned to the school for one semester for the purpose of instructing students to drive.

Sixth New Car Is Loaned to School

E. A. Wooten, Superintendent of Canyon Public Schools received the keys to a 1952 model Pontiac Friday, February 1. The car is the sixth one to be loaned to the school by the Stevenson Pontiac Company here.

Each semester a new car is loaned to the school and at the end of the semester the car is returned to the Stevenson Pontiac Company. The car is for the purpose of teaching high school students to drive safely and properly. Co-sponsors of the driving program are the American Automobile Association, the Stevenson Pontiac Co. and the high school itself.

The instructor in charge of the car is Ray Schultz. Ray went to Austin and received specialized instruction to qualify him for the position as instructor. Cars are allotted by the American Automobile Association. The school supplies the instructor and pays the car expenses, and the Stevenson Pontiac furnishes the car.

T. S. Stevenson, Jr. said that the 1952 model that was delivered Friday made the sixth car loaned to the school. There was a 1949 model loaned the school, two '50 model Pontiacs, two '51 model Pontiacs and Friday's 1952 model.

Mr. Stevenson went on to say that he was very happy with the program and felt that it was doing lots of good in preventing automobile accidents. He explained that when youngsters learn from actual practice they passed the driver's tests more easily and they were better equipped to take on the full responsibility of a driver after getting this type of training.

ANSWERED HIM

He appeared before the company officer, charged with using insulting language to his sergeant.

"Please, sir," he protested, "I was only answering a question."

"What question?" snapped the officer.

"Well, sir, the sergeant said, 'What do you think I am?' and I told him."

Jane Hales, senior at Texas Tech, is spending the semester holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hales. Miss Hales is a 1948 graduate of Canyon High School.

GALLANTRY PAYS

Housewife (sharply to tramp at the door in quest of a meal): "You seem strong enough, you should be at work."

Tramp (bowing gallantly): "Might I say that you seem beautiful and charming enough to be acting for the films, yet evidently you prefer the simple life." He dined heartily.

Lt. Comdr. Elihu Rickel, Marine Corps chaplain, back from Korea: "Korea is a segment of a worldwide struggle for the preservation of our way of life."

Francisco Franco, Spanish Generalissimo: "Thanks both to God and the tenacity of Spaniards, the sun of our hopes begins to shine in the world."

Roger Seydoux, French Consul-General, in New York: "Europe cannot live indefinitely under the fear of Soviet Russia and on American charity."

operation and management of the Canyon Implement and Supply Company in addition to his activities as a farmer.

The new zone chairman was a school teacher for 16 years. Six of those years were spent as public school superintendent. He is a graduate of West Texas State, class of 1929. He received his master's degree at Texas Technological College at Lubbock in 1937 and has been on the Plains since 1910. One of his phases of work during his career as a teacher was spent as an instructor of air crew training at Texas Tech.

Besides his affiliations with the Lions, Cleavinger, who is known locally as Dutch, is a former president of the Chamber of Commerce and is still active in that organization. He is also a member of the Randall County Junior Livestock Association and is active in church work. In his church he is a Steward as well as a choir singer.

WHAT COUNTS

A thrifty man went to a lawyer for advice. After the interview the man ran into an acquaintance and told him about it.

"But why spend money on a lawyer?" asked the other. "When you sat in his office did you see all the law books there? Well, what he told you, you could read in those law books."

"You're right," admitted the advice seeker. "but the lawyer knows what page it's on."

MUST BE MARRIED

The woman lion tamer had the animals under perfect control. At her summons the fiercest lion came meekly to her and took a lump of sugar from her mouth. The circus crowd marveled — all except one man. "Anybody could do that," he called repeatedly until the ringmaster scornfully asked:

"Would you dare do it."

"Certainly," said the cocky customer, coming into the ring. "I can do it as well as the lion can."

GOOD REASON

The mental patient walked up to the new superintendent. "We like you much better than we did the last fellow," he said.

The new official beamed,

"Why?" he asked.

"Oh, you seem to be more like one of us."

THE TWO-CENT POST CARD

Since the traditional one-cent post card was increased to two cents I have received quite a number of comments. At the time the rate was increased a provision was put into the law that when these post cards were purchased in lots of more than 50, an additional charge of ten percent would be made. Several news stories relating incidents of an organization buying several thousand of these, 49 at a time, created a lot of commotion and many people have written me condemning such a theory as being silly.

Here are some of the facts that caused the Congress to require the additional ten percent when more than fifty of the cards are purchased at one time. In the first instance, the one-cent post card (now two cents) was originally created as a cheap means of communication between the people of this country. The cost of the card from the time it was printed until it reached the addressee was more than the one cent and for many years has been more than two cents. I talked to the Post Office Department about this as I felt that the people were entitled to the facts surrounding the matter.

The Post Office Department estimated that at the time the rate was increased from one to two cents the actual cost to the Department from the printing of the card to the delivery of it to the addressee was approximately 2¾ cents. This means that every time one of these printed two-cent cards was mailed, the Post Office Department, and of course the taxpayer, had to furnish an additional 1¾ cents from some other source; that source was of course the taxpayer's pocket.

A survey reflected that approximately ninety percent of these cards that were being mailed originated from some company or organization engaged in sales promotion or advertising. The result was that the taxpayers of this country were actually subsidizing these advertising and sales promotion schemes to the tune of 1¾ cents on every card that was mailed. In other words, every time one of these organizations mailed ten thousand of these cards it cost the taxpayers of this country $175.00; if the organization mailed 100 thousand, it cost the taxpayers $1750.00.

From your own experience in receiving many of these advertising cards in your mail you can visualize how much the process was costing you. It was the opinion of many of the members of Congress that the addition of a small increase in the price of these cards when they were being purchased for the purpose of such type of advertising would measurably reduce the size of the subsidy and decrease the burden on the taxpayer.

I write this explanation because I have received many letters asking me why Congress does not do something to stop some people from flooding the mails with advertising material that they do not want and serves only to clutter up their mail boxes and wastebaskets. If the Post Office Department were making a profit on these post cards, certainly it would be silly to put an additional charge on purchases of more than 50, but since they are being handled at a loss and the taxpayer has to foot the bill, the more the loss can be reduced, the better for the taxpayer.

THE TROUBLE SPOTS

The Middle East is fast becoming the number one trouble spot of the world, just as I predicted in a previous newsletter and in a number of speeches in the district. The problems to be settled in that area are deep seated, and there are a great many more issues involved than in the Korean conflict.

The outcroppings of trouble in the Middle East are not the result of any new-born political philosophies or theories of government. These are the rumblings of peoples who feel that they and their lands have been subjected to foreign exploitation for years and years. The many problems posed cannot be settled quickly nor easily. The people from those countries with whom I have discussed the problems assure me that they do not look upon communist principles as a temporary or a permanent solution to any of their problems.

Those people are all deeply religious; therefore, it is impossible to reconcile their basic beliefs with the atheism of communism. They all assure me that they want to be friendly with the Western powers but that it is extremely difficult for many of their people who have been under colonial domination of European countries to understand that the United States does not have colonial ambitions. Only outstanding statesmanship is going to avoid bloody conflict in this area.

KOREA

The latest information from Korea is that if the Communists commence another all-out offensive in Korea, as they have done on two occasions before, they will be subjected to the greatest slaughter of mankind in history. Actually, the mission of the United Nations to throw communist aggression out of South Korea has been completed, as our entire front line is well above the 38th parallel except on the western edge of Korea.

UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING

The question of UMT or no UMT is a matter of daily debate in all corners of Washington. It is probably one of the most important domestic issues that has faced this country in a long time. Excellent arguments are advanced on both sides of the issue. Personally, I would like to have your thoughts and I would appreciate it if you would indicate your feelings by checking one of the following and mailing it to me with any comments you care to make.

TEXAS SAND and GRAVEL Co.

Complete Service on Quality Sand and Gravel

Located at 92 Harrison — Amarillo, Texas

Phone 6-5300

Did it ever occur to you why an architect or a construction engineer always specified that the sand, gravel and washed sand shall come from the plant of a reliable dealer in these commodities? It is because each material that enters into good construction should be of a kind and quality that by test is proven to be the best.

To the average person, sand is sand and gravel is gravel, but it is of the utmost importance to a construction job of any kind to know just what particular grade it is proper to use to insure the best results.

Texas Sand & Gravel Co. has gained an enviable reputation throughout the state as a reliable dealer in sand and gravel for every purpose.

Contractors and the public in general should exercise great care and use only the very best products for, while sand and gravel are not of major consequences as regards to cost, they become important as a base for the project they enter into.

Real estate projects are greatly aided by the graveling of roads and driveways, particularly since the coming of the motor car, for the property that is not provided with an all-weather outlet makes a very poor appearance to a prospective purchaser.

Careful watch is kept over helpless patients to see that they are made as comfortable as possible and those who can get around are at leisure to spend their time out of doors, when weather permits.

This rest home, where they feature a general service, general practice and give the most understanding care, is convenient in every way, being so located as to conveniently accommodate the people of this section.

The management is to be commended upon devoting their lives to this work, that is so much needed and for illustrating the change in methods from the olden times when the people who needed care of this type found it very hard to secure any type of care at all. This accounts for the rapid recovery of almost anyone coming to Walker's Convalescent Home for the care.

The Star Electric Company is a well known establishment for service on Electrical Engineering Service. The advances made in this branch of science have been so marked and have followed each other so swiftly that it takes much study and research to keep up with the latest phases of the electrical business.

This well known concern and the men who direct its affairs have made quite a study of all the problems connected with the Electrical Contracting Service.

They are practical men in this line, having learned the business from actual work and experience, and being conversant with the laws of the state and city government relative to electrical wiring, so that when the work is completed it will not only be found perfectly satisfactory, but will conform to the rules of the underwriters and will be perfectly safe.

The Star Electric Company is a safe establishment with which to entrust your electrical work, no matter how large or small the job may be. If you are figuring on any electrical work, let them help make up your plans and many little conveniences that are new and up-to-date will be included and you will find that construction with them will save you money.

In regard to electrical contracting, wiring and installation, they are in a position to take care of all work in the most competent manner.

Statehouse

How to carry money in thirteen pockets — and spend it economically — is a problem bothering the Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

Under the statutes enacted by the Texas Legislature, Commissioner White's Department — which vitally affects all elements of the Texas rural economy — is faced with perplexing and complex administrative problems.

Commissioner White has called upon the Texas Economy Commission to help him work out this problem of finances which is contributing to problems of the Department's organization and personnel.

The Commission is a privately-endowed group of leading Texas citizens created by Governor Allan Shivers to help unsnarl such confusions in the State Government set-up and save the taxpayers' dollars by eliminating waste.

The young, red-haired Commissioner, who took office in 1950, was the first State official to call voluntarily for the Commission's guidance. He made it clear that he wanted to cut out any waste in his agency and pass the savings on to the taxpayer.

The Commission's staff termed the financing of the Department of Agriculture's activities a "hodge-podge" that would lead to waste.

This hodge-podge gives the Department of Agriculture money from the unrestricted General Revenue Fund plus money from twelve special funds or fee accounts, such as agricultural field seed inspection account, weights and measures account, antifreeze inspection account, nursery inspection account, license fund and citrus fruit inspection fund.

The money from these funds and fees makes up the $678,068 on which the Department is run annually.

Where the confusion comes in is that in five of the seven divisions within the Department, money to support their operations is drawn from at least two sources. One division, the Horticulture and Plant Quarantine branch, draws money from seven sources.

The Texas Economy Commission has noted, too, that the Legislature has provided that money set aside for a special purpose can be used only for that special purpose. This requires that the State have on hand a cash balance larger than would otherwise be necessary.

All the resulting problems from having thirteen pocketsful of money are receiving close attention by the Texas Economy Commission.

Actually, the Commission has no authority to make any changes in existing practices and procedures of the State Government agencies. Its staff — headed by Dr. Stuart MacCorkle of Austin — is highly respected, however, and recommendations from the group carry considerable weight with the Legislature.

The Economy Commission is the only group in the State working exclusively on the problem of reducing the ever-increasing costs of State Government which have risen by more than 500 per cent since 1930. By working quietly, without fanfare, the group hopes in the near future to bring about some money-saving and time-saving changes in the handling of the State's money paid by the taxpaying residents of Texas.

Commissioner White hopes that — through the aid of this group — he can bring about substantial savings in the operation of his Department, and give better service in more economical and orderly fashion.

THE BRUTE

Henpeck, in a sorely battered state, was being cross-examined by a bullying counsel.

"Do you mean to tell me that you have always treated your wife with respect?" asked counsel.

"Always," replied Henpeck, firmly.

"And you've never once spoken a hasty word to her?"

Henpeck hesitated for a moment and the lawyer was quick to seize the opportunity. He roared, "I want the truth!"

"Well," faltered Henpeck at last, "I remember I did once say to her, 'Put down that poker'!"

NO DOUBLE HEADER

"John, did you pay my little brother to remain out of the parlor?" the young woman soberly demanded.

"Er-yes, I did," her timid beau replied. "I hope I was not presuming."

"Not at all," came the laughing rejoinder. "I just wanted to make sure that that little chiseler didn't collect from both of us."

Sherma Dixon Succeeds Barbara Glanton As Annual Band Queen

SHERMA DIXON

Sherma Dixon, high school senior, was crowned Band Queen for 1952, at the winter concert presented by the Canyon High School Band in the auditorium Thursday, January 31. Sherma was presented a bouquet of gardenias and crowned by Barbara Glanton, 1951 band queen. She was escorted by Bobby Vandergriff.

La Rue Davis announced the candidates as they entered: Nelda Ruthart, escorted by Ralph Green; Tysene Cox, escorted by Bob Huddleston; and Nora Dell Ruthart, escorted by Charles Miller.

For the queen's entertainment, the band played "Sweet and Lovely."

The concert program consisted of an assortment of tempos and themes. A concert march, "Hall of Fame," opened the program, followed by Caravan Overture, an arrangement of three popular songs. "Bridal Song Intermezzo" and "Indiana State Band March" completed the first half of the program.

"The Gold and Silver Waltz," "Eldorado," a Spanish dance, and "Pavanne," a jazzy tune, followed. "Syncopated Clock," currently popular hit tune, served as the popular song of the evening.

The band formed the background music for Clyde Swatzell to feature his thrills and tongue teezers in "Somnambula," a clarinet solo. "Our Director March" concluded the program.

YOUR CHS CREED

A creed is beliefs and opinions believed and expressed by a person or persons in an organization.

But what is the use of a creed? What is its purpose? When someone asks you what are the traits and ideals you believe should be expressed and maintained in your school, can you tell them sufficiently so that they will know, without having visited your school before, what kind of an organization of students and faculty you have?

Before you could ever make anyone else believe in your creed, you, yourself, must thoroughly believe in it. It must mean more to you than just a piece of paper with some words written on it. During the years you are attending school, you are molding your life. What traits and characteristics you believe and practice now are going to determine in later years what kind of a person you will be.

Not only should you believe the CHS creed, but you should uphold it, as you think and say, "I believe in Canyon High School as a place of opportunity. I believe in its reputation for honest work, fair play, and sincere interest in the youth of my community. I believe in the idea proclaimed in its motto, "Knowledge, Loyalty, Honor, Courage, Service." I believe in its worthy ideals; clean sportsmanship, high scholarship, true friendliness and respect for others, obedience to law, and cordial cooperation with the faculty administration, and student body.

I, therefore, believe it is my duty to my school to support it loyally and to defend it against all opposition."

YOU CAN HELP

Every individual has the task of keeping the standards of honesty high in their school and home life. If you are in doubt as to how you can help, the following four points will aid you:

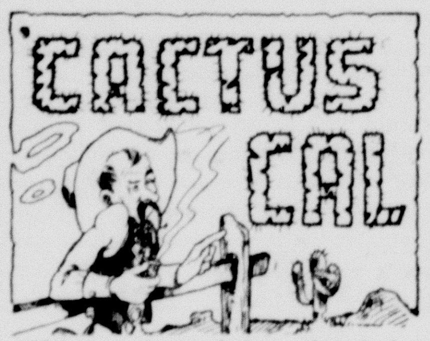
1. If a person is thinking about doing something, but isn't sure about the honesty of it, he should ask himself these questions: "What would be the result if everyone should do what I am contemplating?" "If others should do it, would I approve?" "Will it hurt someone if I do it?"

2. You should remember, too, that sportsmanship is a lot more important than the winning of the game. The really bad thing about defeat is in being a poor loser.

3. Working to keep the standards of your school high encourages those of low standards to work towards higher goals.

4. Make yourself a promise not to cheat. You only hurt yourself when you try to gain success or victory by cheating.

Remember that You, and You, and You, have the responsibility of lifting and holding high the standards of honesty in this, your high school.



This week, Cal has decided to dedicate the entire column to parodies, written by the Journalism staff, for the benefit of poetry lovers.

OPPORTUNITY

Master of human destinies am I;
Fame, love and fortune on my footsteps wait,
Cities and fields I walk; I penetrate
Deserts and seas remote, and passing by
Hovel and mart and palace, soon or late
I knock unbidden once at every gate;
If sleeping, wake, if feasting, rise, before
I turn away. It is the hour of fate,
And they who follow me reach every state
Mortals desire, and conquer every foe
Save death, but those who doubt or hesitate condemned to failure, penury and woe,
Seek me in vain and uselessly implore,
I answer not and I return no more.

I knew not what the future had
Of marvel or surprise,
Assured of a happy ending, Egad
The teacher got wise.

You would, that thus, when you shall see
The hour of reports draw near to thee.
An A, instead of the usual C
Merrily you'd laugh and jump with glee!

I set with folded hands and wait,
Wondering what will become of me.
It's just a risk my eyes must take
Whether I make a B or a C!

Report card time comes
Quickly on little cat feet.

They lay starring
at students and parents
as in a manner of daring and then explanations begin.

Pete and Doyle's "Uncle Joe"
Monday night at the Amateur show
Rolled the people in the aisles
With his comical, delightful wiles!

There are certain things as, a stag, a boast,
Book reports, bubble gum, a date for three—
That I hate, but the thing that I hate the most
Is a thing they call Plane Geometry!

For what avail
The plow or sail,
Or land or life,
If we should fail!!!

SLUMBER PARTY

Sophomore girls attended a slumber party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Holt, February 1. The girls first went to the district basketball game between the Canyon Eagles and the Tulia Hornets.

After the game they went to the local theater for the second show, then returned to the Holt's for the slumber party. There the girls played games and had refreshments before going to bed.

March of Dimes Contributions

Contributions amounting to $12.15 were received Friday, February 1, from students of Canyon High School in the last of a series of weekly March of Dimes campaigns carried on by the SFC.

This sum, added to the amount taken in since the campaign began Friday, January 11, makes a total of $59.45 contributed by high school students.

Groups Receive Letter Jackets

"Oh, the letter jackets are here," "I can't wait to get mine," and "Aren't they beautiful," was the chatter Wednesday, January 30, when the football, band, and choir jackets arrived.

The football jackets are wool, with gray bodies, purple sleeves, white letters, and a co-champions of district emblem on the sleeve.

Twenty-six boys received jackets, lucky ones were: Stirling Cummings, Jimmie Montgomery, Dan Gaylor, Jimmie Cornette, Dick Dawdy, Dwain Currie, Ray Burrus, Tommy Myers, Tommy Middleton, Bob Ratliff, John Miller, Harrell Slack, Arlen Ruthart, A. C. Wimberly, Lynn Williams, Phil Booth, Richard Perkins, Doyle Green, Charles Donnell, Don McDonald, Leroy Dickerson, Charles Morris, James Cundiff, Richard Pruitt, and George Dowlen. Coaches Floyd Murry, Lloyd Johnson, and manager, Steve McKee received jackets also.

Choir sweaters are white wool, long-sleeved with a purple chenille "C," that has "choir" written in white. The band jackets are gray body and sleeve with a purple stripe down the side. The band sweaters are white with the purple emblem with the white inscription, "band." The same emblem is on the band jackets. Emblems were given to those who did not want a jacket.

"This Amazing World of Electronics," a scientific film, was shown to the fourth period chemistry class of Canyon High School last week.

Fields have been opened in three main divisions in the study of electronics. Radio, the industrial field, and television are aided by this little miracle tube of electronics. Because of this electron tube many new and skilled occupations have been made available to more people.

Many of the comforts and conveniences taken for granted have just recently been developed for the knowledge and enjoyment of people living in this present age.

Things, unheard of in the past, as two-way radios, television, music produced by electronics for as long as a continual four hours, radios in trains and planes, transmitting and receiving sets, and more unbelievable devices, are now being practically taken for granted.

Even now experiments are still being carried on to produce still undreamed of things in the time to come. Truly, this is an "amazing world in the age of electronics."

Local Masons To Sponsor Contest

Local order of Masons will cooperate with Governor Allan Shivers in recognition of Public Schools Week, March 2 through 8, by sponsoring a theme contest for the benefit of local students.

Governor Shivers has designated Public Schools Week as a period of observance by all citizens of their local schools, to see the importance and value of schools and the work they do.

The contest will be open to students of all ages and prizes will be awarded.

Specific rules will be published at a later date.

Cartoons Discussed By Guest Speaker

Conclusions drawn by the reader of an editorial cartoon determines its effectiveness and force. This was stressed by Miss Claudia Neelley, guest speaker, to the Canyon High School journalism students early this week.

Emphasis was placed on the editorial cartoon which is a powerful force of the reading public of adults and students today. Miss Neelley discussed methods used by the artist to convey definitely the idea he is representing to the reader. The editorial cartoon has a definite purpose of influencing the public.

Eagle Flock Nips Tulia Quint 55-37 In First District 2-AA District Play

'B' Eagles Topple Tulia and Phillips

In a fast-moving game Friday night, February 1, in Canyon, the Eagles 'B' team defeated the Tulia 'B' by a score of 51-47, their first district game of the season.

During the first half neither team held a certain lead, the first half period ended 16-20 in Tulia's favor. Canyon pulled out in the last half to win 51-47, during the last period of play due to Tulia's lack of substitutes there were only four men on each team.

High point honors went to Chas. Miller with 17 points, followed by Richard Pruitt with 12.

Canyon's 'B' team won an easy victory over the Phillip's 'B,' at Canyon January 29, to the score of 49-29. The squad never lost their lead, the first half ended 23-15. Arlen Ruthart and Charles Miller led the scoring with 11 points each, followed by Charles Boling with 10, Don McDonald and Richard Pruitt, 9.

Annual Members Meet Deadlines

Amidst a mixture of glue, ink, pictures, magazines, scissors, and rulers the second deadline was met Thursday, January 31, with one-fourth of the annual (31 pages) as reported by Bette McGehee, annual staff editor.

Included in this deadline edition were the sophomore class, junior class, class division pages, foreword, and dedication pages and the ads.

The first deadline, which consisted of the title page, faculty, freshman class, table of contents, division pages and football teams, was met December 31.

February 27 and March 24 are the dates when the third and fourth deadlines are to be met.

The title page, division pages, and table of contents were drawn by the second period art class under the direction of Miss Claudia Neelley.

Thompson Is Winner In Amateur Show

W. M. "Buddy" Thompson, junior, won the first prize of five dollars with his comical imitations of Tex Ritter's "Rye Whiskey" and Spike Jones' "Cocktails for Two," in the amateur show sponsored by the Canyon chapter of FTA.

Second and third prizes went to Marcieta Bynum, who sang "Nevertheles's' and Bob Huddleston, who played "Stormy Weather," "Because of You," and "Blue Skies" on the trombone.

Other participants were Peggy Williams, Sue Daniels, Lura Nell Prichard, Patsy Morgan, Beverly Colwell, and Janet Taylor.

Doyle Green and Charles Donnell, members of FTA, gave an amusing comedy act of Professor Hugo Theresky, violinist, with his accompanist, Professor Will Comeheresky and between numbers entertained with comics.

Ann Holt, Nancy Bolton, Bettie Jean Graham, and Marcieta Bynum, FTA ensemble, sang "Girl of My Dreams," and Dorothy Cleavinger played "Bells of the Sea" on the violin. "The Burning of Rome" was played on the piano by Ralph Green of the FTA.

Acting as Master of Ceremonies was Cecil Belcher.

Dating Data

Boys say the trouble with some girls is that they act too silly, and they're catty about other girls. Whether it's on a date or just around school, these girls knock themselves out giggling, making wisecracks, and saying the same pet phrases over and over again.

Cat chatter makes boys feel self-conscious; too much noise makes them feel like "everybody is staring at us." These girls give the impression sometimes that the only reason they date is to win some kind of race with their girl friends.

Another fault which most boys don't like is that girls are always trying to get their rings and make a great love out of a few casual dates. Boys say girls should try to be more of a friend and buddy to them. Girls should be someone they can talk to about their problems, too. A boy likes for a girl to act as if it were him she liked and not just his ring.

The girl with whom a boy can have a real conversation about the things which interest him most is usually the girl who has the most dates.

Cotton textile men see decline in fabrics exports for 1952.

Before a capacity crowd in the Canyon High School gym, the Tulia Hornets swiftly eroded and finally crumbled under the onslaught of the purple and white clad hoopsters of Canyon High. The Eagles bashed the Hornets 55-37 in their first District 2-AA tilt.

Coach Floyd Murry's cagemen met the Hornets in their first of a series of district games. In this season, the Eagles seized a 19-3 record.

The Eagles were behind only once in the entire game, the Hornets grabbed an early 2-0 lead, but it didn't last long as Ratliff quickly came back with 2 points, putting the Flock in front to stay.

Bob Ratliff cut the swarm's wind as he completely controlled the defensive and offensive backboards. John Miller was responsible for the fast passing and last minute spunk in the game.

Middleton sunk a beautiful shot from the extreme corner of the court. He grabbed the ball from a Hornet and again accounted for two points.

In the first quarter, Burrus recovered the ball after a Hornet fell and lost control of the ball.

In the second quarter, Burrus accounted for 6 of the 13 points made in that quarter. It was Burrus' best quarter of play in the entire game.

In the third and fourth quarter the ball just went from one team to another. Ratliff made 6 of the 16 points of the third quarter, with Burrus leading with 4 points.

Luke hit 7 points for Tulia and Lacy ripped the nets for 14. Red Ratliff paced the Eagles with 24 points. The Eagles used fast plays and never did get into serious trouble.

The Eagles jumped out to a 15 to 5 lead at the first period and were ahead 28 to 13 at halftime. At the three quarter mark the score was 44 to 28.

Starting for the Eagles were Dawdy, Ratliff, Burrus, Williams and Hamblen. Tulia starters were Luke, Lacy, Jennings, Punnell and Ringo.

Just Between You, Me and . . . the Gatepost

Last week was really something special. The appearance of The Prairie gang in the backroom of The News was really nice. It seems that the place is sort of brightened up when there are such people as T. C. Brown and Vaughn Vandergriff around. Add to that the delightful company of Bill Cherry, James Gamblin, and Sterlin Holmesly plus other journalism students who come and go, and you have a gang that can really brighten a work day.

Last week the entire community was honored somewhat through a local citizen. That citizen was E. R. (Dutch) Cleavinger who was appointed zone chairman of the Lions. It was a sort of an emergency selection right smack in the middle of the term. Lion Cantrell of Tulia was supposed to remain zone chairman until July, but he resigned. Then to fill in the remainder of the term, Lion's District Governor Boyd Meador appointed Cleavinger. Although five clubs make up this zone, the local Lions club was the one selected to supply the zone chairman in a pinch. It's truly a great honor for the entire community as well as Mr. Cleavinger.

While on the subject of the community it might be well to note the dust and sand storm of last Sunday. The thing whipped dust into every building in town it seems. Monday morning most of the merchants were out bright and early getting the dust swept off the sidewalks in front of their businesses. To make a pun, one could almost say that Sunday's wind was almost as high as income taxes. Meaning that it was way up yonder.

Congratulations are in order for County Attorney McGlasson. He lost his title as an eligible bachelor early in the Leap Year season. Here's hoping he's enjoying a nice honeymoon and that he will return and settle down for a nice, long, happy married life.

Early this week John Hunter tipped The News off to a new industry in our midst. The industry is that of minnow raising for fishing bait. Hunter said that the lakes and tanks required to raise the fish were almost completed. There are two electric pumps to keep the supply of fresh water flowing. It's a brand new industry for this area and it's rather odd that it should be so far away from any fishing site.

One thing about living in the United States is the fact that there's always a fight going on. Last month it was a fight against polio. The March of Dimes was the fight for finances to hold back the line of the crippling disease that has been hitting so many of our youngsters.

This month the first is a little different but it's still for the kids. The battle of February will be fought by Texans in an attempt to retain the vast richness of the tidelands that supply a lot of the finances for public schools. Governor Shivers recently signed the proclamation making the big 29 day February the official Tidelands Month in Texas. The governor mentioned that it was highly appropriate that the state of Texas, the union's biggest, should pick the biggest month of February, Leap Year, giving it 29 days, to designate as Tidelands Month. It's going to be a big fight, but it seems that everything connected with Texas is big.

The only month directly affected by Leap Year is February. You see, every four years February has one additional day in it for all those people who simply can't find time to do anything. Those people should find time on the 29th day of February. That's the extra day they wish for during the three year period between Leap Years.

Only a few months ago civic leaders were searching high and low for a scout master and assistant to take over scout troop 66. Luckily the scout master was found and this week, boy scout week all over America, will be observed here by the revived troop.

The final two days of this boy scout week will be observed by the boys in true scout fashion. They will camp on the court house square where they can enjoy the out-of-doors atmosphere without going too far away from home.

The scouts will enjoy a final fling of home life the night before pitching camp about the court house. The scouts plus people in all walks of life who are interested in civic work, will be present at the Methodist church for a banquet on Thursday night, February 7. The following Friday night the scouts will set up their tents on the court house lawn.

Speaking of days brings to mind a joke that was passed on to us by Gene Hill. It seems that two fellows were walking down the sidewalk when one of them said, "sure windy today, isn't it?"

"No, I believe it's Thursday," replied the other fellow.

"Why, yes I am," the first fellow answered then went on, "let's stop some place and get a drink."

Fairview Breezes

It sure has been windy and dry in our vicinity.

There is a lot of sickness in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wesley are the parents of a baby girl born Sunday, January 27, in a Littlefield hospital. She has been named Debra Kaleen.

Mrs. Alvin Wesley went to Levelland Wednesday to care for her new granddaughter, Debra Kaleen Wesley.

Richard Evans was sick with flu Thursday.

G. E. Wesley is able to be up and around the house, but still not very well.

Chas. Sutton was sick with flu the first part of last week.

The F. O. Amerson family, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Amerson, Don'L and Martha, Vesta and Lavena Amerson, Mr. and Mrs. Coye Elkins, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Cagle and Lynda all went to Pampa to celebrate the second birthday of their grandson and nephew, Little Ronnie Morgan.

Sen. Tom Connally Opposes Truman's St. Lawrence Plan

Senator Tom Connally this week answered President Truman's request for approval of the St. Lawrence Seaway with a statement reaffirming his long-standing opposition to the project and pointing out that the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, which Connally heads, has had the Seaway under consideration for many years without approving it.

As soon as the President's message to Congress on the Seaway had been read, Connally took the Senate floor to say:

"I am strongly opposed to the proposed spending of approximately $1,000,000,000 on the St. Lawrence Seaway, a project which would involve the building of a canal through foreign territory.

The Committee on Foreign Relations has been considering the subject for a long period. It will consider it again, of course, from time to time. However, I very much hope that the committee will adhere to its position of not reporting the bill favorably at this time or at any other time.

"This is no time to spend another billion dollars on top of what has already been spent. However, that is not the only reason I oppose the project. The facts show that the project is not in the interest of the United States."

NOW HE DOES

A fond mother received the following letter from her son:

"Dear Mum, —I joined the Navy because I liked the way the ships were kept so clean and tidy. But I never knew until this week who keeps them so clean and tidy. —Love, Jimmy."

COLORFUL

Reporter: "What shall I say about the two peroxide blondes who had the fight at the baseball game last night?"

Editor: "Why just say the bleachers went wild."

WAY TO A SHORT LIFE

Lung Specialist: "A man who sings at the top of his voice for an hour a day won't be troubled by chest complaints in his old age."

Pre-Med: "He probably won't even be troubled by old age."
